

ANDREA BEAULIEU
COACH + AUTHOR + CONSULTANT

Moving forward and making a difference with clarity, confidence and a new creative spirit.

Andrea Beaulieu is a coach, author, award-winning consultant and culture catalyst, speaker and performer. Her featured services include story/presentation skills performance coaching, team facilitation, communication skills and collaboration; and her celebration, Love Is Loud! With her professional expertise and personal experience in communication, creativity, life skills, leadership, and the performing arts, Andrea assists individuals and organizations to get to the essence of their purpose, values, and goals, and express them powerfully and authentically in the world. She combines her abilities as a speaker and performer to coach others to be more powerful presenters and tell their stories with enthusiasm and passion.

As owner of Andrea Beaulieu Creates, LLC, since 1987, Andrea has served dozens of clients in several industries, and worked as the contracted executive director for two nonprofit organizations, and interim executive director for two additional nonprofits.

Previously, she served as director of public relations for Ramada, Inc., and in management and creative positions with a public relations agency, a national retail company, and an emergency medical standards organization. She is the recipient of numerous awards including The Art of the Show First Place from the International Association of Exhibition Management and the Copper Quill Award of Excellence from the International Association of Business Communicators.

She has a certification in Transformational Life Coaching from the highly esteemed, nationally accredited Southwest Institute of Healing Arts, Tempe, Ariz., completing an intensive 100-hour course. She has also received certifications from the Institute of Cultural Affairs (ICA) in Facilitation Training, and from the Chemical Awareness Training Institute in Student Assistance and Support Group Facilitator Training.

As a professional speaker, Andrea has shared her expertise and inspirational stories with diverse audiences including the Women in Intel Network, Scottsdale Healthcare, the American Academy of Family Physicians Women's Health and Physician Wellness Conference, Northern Trust Bank, and the Association for Financial Professionals of Arizona, among others.

Concurrently, she has been an actress and singer for more than 30 years performing in various venues, and has traveled with the international organization, Up With People, singing and dancing at Super Bowl Halftime, the Indianapolis 500, and Bob Hope's Birthday Party. She currently offers a one-woman show, "Love is Loud," and is available for special events and club work.

She is the author of Ah Ha! 100 Flashes of Insight and Inspiration from Your Authentic Voice and Finding Your Authentic Voice: Seven Practices to Free the Real You and Experience Love, Happiness and Fulfillment

She has served on the boards of directors of several nonprofit organizations including Parent's Anonymous, and the New School for the Arts and Academics. She is currently a member of the Steering Committee of Gabriel's Angels, Phoenix, Ariz.; a member of HNK Consultants (of St. Luke's Health Initiative), Phoenix, Ariz.; a member of Park Central Toastmasters, Phoenix, Ariz.; and a Candidate Member of the NSA-Arizona. She graduated magna cum laude from Arizona State University in Mass Communications, Tempe, Ariz.
